To Whom it May Concern,

El Paso County is coordinating with United Policyholders to provide long term recovery support to our residents whose homes were damaged or destroyed in last year's tragic wildfires. We have requested that they offer additional information on insurance preparedness for future disasters, with particular attention to the increased flooding risks we face in the burn areas.

United Policyholders is a 501(c)(3) with unique expertise in insurance recovery and financial preparedness and a teaching team that has proven valuable to our citizens, and we look forward to continuing to work with them.

Sincerely,

Brian J. Olson
